Falzone New President Of Faculty Senate

Vincent J. Falzone has been elected president of the Faculty Senate of The University of Texas at Tyler for the 1982-83 academic year. Officers who will serve with him include Marilyn Young as vice president and J. Paxton Hart as secretary.

Senate members (with senior senator listed first) by school for 1982-83 include:

School of Business Administration — Marilyn Young and George Joyce.

School of Education and Psychology — Julianne B. Hubble and Gary Wright.

School of Liberal Arts — J. Paxton Hart and Vincent J. Falzone.

School of Sciences and Mathematics — David C. Riddle and Robert H. Cranford.

Hart Amoco Recipient

J. Paxton Hart, a 16-year veteran in the teaching profession, is the 1982 Amoco Foundation Teaching Award recipient at The University of Texas at Tyler. He was presented a $1,000 check from the Amoco Foundation.

The 1982 recipient has been a member of the UT Tyler faculty since 1974, coming to Tyler from The Pennsylvania State University.

The Amoco Foundation presents The University of Texas System funds each year to recognize an outstanding teacher on each of the seven academic campuses in the system.

"It is a pleasure to recognize Dr. Hart for his outstanding contributions to UT Tyler and higher education," President George F. Hamm said. "He exemplifies the quality of instruction available at this university. We are pleased for this recognition from his peers and students."

Members of the Faculty Awards Committee which made the selection include Tommy D. Gilbreath as chairman, Tim K. Kane, Thomas A. Keagy and Frank H. Smyrl.

Previous recipients of the Amoco Foundation Teaching Award at UT Tyler include Gilbreath in 1981 and W. Clayton Allen and C. Ray Gullett in 1980.

Early Registration Count Up

Four days of early registration for the summer sessions at The University of Texas at Tyler resulted in 821 students enrolling for classes. This compares to 580 who participated in early registration last year and is almost double the count two years ago.

Summer I has 511 students enrolled while Summer II has 310.

The final summer enrollment—Summer I and Summer II combined—for 1980 was 1,264 with 440 of those early registering. The final count in 1981 for both summer sessions was 1,304 with 580 of those registering early.

Commencement To Honor 361 UT Tyler Graduates

The University of Texas at Tyler honors its 361 fall and spring graduates at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 15, in Harvey Hall. George F. Hamm will preside at the commencement.

The 361 graduates include 71 at the master's level and 290 at the bachelor's level. By semester, 141 of the students are fall semester graduates and 220 are candidates for degrees this semester.

Jess Hay, member of The University of Texas System Board of Regents, will confer the degrees.

Presentation of degree candidates will be by Donald W. Whisenhunt, Wendell C. Hewett, Robert L. Cox, F. Lannom Smith and L. Lynn Sherrod.

Representing the UT Tyler Alumni Association on the program will be Mrs. Kay Arms.

Music for the program will be by the UT Tyler Brass Quintet conducted by Chadwick Edwards.

The Rev. M. L. Agnew, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, will give the invocation and Dr. James T. Garrett, pastor of Marvin United Methodist Church, will give the benediction.

Leading the processional will be Gerald L. Morris, senior charter faculty member.

Scholarship Applications Due

The University of Texas at Tyler Student Financial Aid Office is accepting scholarship applications from students for the 1982-83 academic year. Several scholarships will be awarded during the summer for the 1982-83 academic year.

Students interested in submitting an application can pick up the form in the Student Financial Aid Office or telephone the office and have one mailed.

UT Tyler Given $5,000

The University of Texas at Tyler has received $5,000 to establish the Aetna Life and Casualty Foundation Scholarship Grant for 1982-83. The scholarship award money is to be used at the undergraduate level. The announcement of the gift was made by James E. Shaw, director of the student financial aid office.

"This type of grant is an annual one and is designed to help qualified students who, without such financial assistance, would possibly be unable to further their education," wrote Robertson Mackay, chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the Aetna Foundation.

In other student financial aid matters, Judy Crawford of Longview has been announced as the recipient of a $200 Women's Symphony League Scholarship for 1982-83.

Ambassador McGee Commencement Speaker

Ambassador Dale W. McGee, former U.S. Ambassador to the Organization of American States, will be the speaker at the spring commencement of The University of Texas at Tyler.

UT Tyler will honor its 361 spring and fall graduates at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 15, in Tyler's Harvey Hall.

The former ambassador began his public career as a professor of history and taught for 20 years before moving into the political arena. He taught at Nebraska Wesleyan University, Iowa State University, University of Notre Dame and the University of Wyoming.

He was elected to his first of three terms as a U.S. Senator from Wyoming in 1958. In 1977, he was appointed U.S. Ambassador to the Organization of American States, a position he held until July 1981.

McGee holds the A.B. degree from Nebraska State College, the M.A. from the University of Colorado and the Ph.D. from the University of Chicago.

Over the years he has been a guest speaker on nearly 700 different campuses.
